

INVITATION

Towards a Society with Social Protection for All

A Concise History of Social Security Transformation in Modern China

Zhou, Hong, Zhang, Jun

Friday | 12th October 2018 | 10:00 – 11:30
Foundation for European Progressive Studies
Rue Montoyer 40, 1000 Brussels

The book includes a series of reviews of the development of social policy since the establishment of the People's Republic of China. It looks at the effect of the economic system, the mode of production and forms of employment for social policy design, to clarify the developing context of Chinese social policy, and to help readers grasp the legal aspects of social policy development and the main problems China faces in its present economic developmental stage.

This event will be an opportunity to discuss how to ensure sustainability and adequacy of social security systems, and what the future of pension policy in the context of future of work should be.

Prof Dr. Zhou Hong, member of the Academic Divisions of Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (CASS), serves as Deputy Chair of the Academic Division for International Studies of CASS. She is the Chairwoman of the China Association for European Studies, deputy chair to the China Association for Social Security Studies, and to the China Association for International Relations.

Prof. Dr. Zhang Jun is a senior research fellow in Institute of European Studies, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences. Her research covers European governance, foreign aid and the development of welfare state.